

Mollusks in Action

1. What are the two main types of mollusks?
 - a.
 - b.
2. Another word for snail is _____
3. Mollusks with two-piece shells are called _____
4. Mollusks with one coiled, spiral shell are called _____
5. How can you tell if a mollusk is alive _____
6. The common name for the operculum is _____
7. The operculum in the Fighting Conch is located _____
8. The mantle is responsible for creating the animal's _____
9. Where does growth take place in the mollusk's shell _____
10. The periostracum is what part of the shell _____
11. The reason mollusks don't see well is because _____
12. The proboscis is used for _____
13. How many siphons do scallops have _____
14. What are two functions of siphons?
 - a.
 - b.
15. What are two different ways that mollusks move?
 - a.
 - b.
16. Describe two ways that mollusks eat.
 - a.
 - b.
17. Give two facts about the Lightning Whelk egg case.
 - a.
 - b.
18. Describe four ways a mollusk protects itself.
 - a.
 - b.
 - c.
 - d.